I would perviy ask the question, would a hearth or base made of sheet from stand much putting feet upon it for that purpose? I think not, therefore I would caution the public to buy such Stoves only as have been well tested and tried. This Stove saily as have been well tested and treet. This stove has a cast fron hearth and two doors in front, one for putting in coal and the other to show the fire, thereby giving a very cheerful appearance, and at the same time brings an open fire convenient for warming we drying the feet. NEWS FROM RHODE-ISLAND.—
IMPORTANT TESTIMONY.—If further proof is required to establish the fact of the inestimable value of Dr. Starkweather's Hepatic Elixir, the following communication from the Hon. Samuol W. King, Governor of the State of Rhode-Island, contains adequate testimony to substantiate it beyond dispute, and must put entirely at rest the idea that this potent remedy is classed with the many useless and dangerous nostrums which are palmed upon the public merely for the sake of gain.

Please aead the following statements communicated to the undersigned by His Excellency, under date of JOHNSTON, Jan. 29, 1842Mr. CHARLES DYER, Jr.:

Mr. CHARLES DYER, Jr.:

My Dear Sir—Your communication of yesterday, asking my opinion of Dr. Starkwenther's Hepatic Édixir, has been received this morning. In reply, I will inform you that my confidence in patent medicines generally is not very flattering. I have had too much reason to believe that unprincipled men will often paken upon their fellow-citizens their useless, if not dangerous nostrams for the sake of gain, the use of which takes up that important and critical period of time without producing any good effect, when otherwise perhapt proper remedies would have been used, and much suffering and distress prevented. For that reason I have not used them, feeling myself and family to be much safer under the direction of my family physicians; but having been afflicted for the last six years with difficulties in the side and chest, uncomfortable and often distressing, painful, and

It is indeed a blessing to the addicted. unctions of life are destroyed. It is now conceiled by the animal system.

The proper method of cure, therefore, is to attack the citadel in which the disease intrenches itself; and no combination of medical agents has yet been discovered so ellicacious for this purpose as the preparation of the late Or. Rosh, and which, from the universal success attending their Rash, and which, from the universal success attending their administration, during a practice of nearly half a century, were styled his "Infallible Health Pill." Their great virtue is, that they arrest discuse in its first approach. They are preventives as well as renedies; and we will venture to say that if taken by persons when they are first affected with symptoms of illness, many a case, that is either serious or fatal, might be avoided.

Let the afflicted without hesitation avail themselves of this importance.

DESIRE A RESTORATION TO REALTH .- : venture to affirm says an eminent writer, that the grand source of hearth and disease is connected with the natural or disordered function of the liver, and that every chronic or lingering illness arises from some defectthere. Chronic Hepatitis the most sionally an obtase pain in the right side, extending to the top of the shoulder, cramp or spasm is often experienced, and nervous twitching of the muscles and aching pain of the limb, nervous or sick headache is generally caused by it. It often appears in the form of congn. asthma, &c., as a diseased state of the liver, either by sympathy or pressure, induces a derangement of the functions of the lungs and occasions these disorders. By changing the morbid state of the liver, the irritation of the lungs immediately gives way.—

The liver is indeed connected, primarily or secondarily, as cause or effect, with various diseases of the head as well as other naris of the system.

other parts of the system.

From these views, then, there can be no doubt that the disorders of the liver are of the first importance, and every effort used to remedy them should be conducted on rational of the most proper medicines, many very serious consequences may be prevented, which too often are equaled on the constitution by procrastiantion.

As a remedy peculiarly adapted to the cure of liver affections. tions, Dr. Starkweather's Hepatic Elixir has proved to be the most potent and efficacions, and every day's experience confirms more positively this assertion. It is candidly be-lieved that no preparation has ever been before the public that has met with such unexampled approbation from distinguished sources, disinterested judges, and grateful pa-tients as this medicine, and a greater amount of suffering
